

Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana – School of Health Sciences
 Imaging Sciences Program: Radiologic Technology Concentration

RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY CONCENTRATION

(eff. 2017)

General Education Program Curriculum Semester Sequence for Completion of Imaging Science Degree

GENERAL EDUCATION PREREQUISITIES FIRST SEMESTER	CREDITS	DATE COMPLETED
IVYT 112 – Student Success for Healthcare	1
APHY 101 – Anatomy & Physiology I	3
MATH 136 – College Algebra	3
ENGL 111 – English Composition	3
HLHS 101 – Medical Terminology	3
APHY 102 – Anatomy & Physiology II	3
COMM 101 – Fundamentals of Public Speaking or COMM 102 – Interpersonal Communication	3
PSYC 101 – General Psychology or SOC 111 – Principles of Sociology	3
Total	22

1. All above courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C
2. A minimum of 15 credit hours from the above courses MUST be completed at Ivy Tech (not transferred in)

Student Name (please print) _____

Signature of advisor indicates this student has fulfilled all Ivy Tech requirements necessary for the IVT AAS Imaging Science degree upon completion of the hospital-based radiography program.

IVT Advisor Signature _____ Print Name _____ Date _____
 Campus _____

NOTE: Hancock Regional Hospital Program Specific Requirements

- * A & P and Med Term credits may not be more than 5 years old
- * HRH requires applicants to have ONE of the following with a minimum grade of C-:
 - a. One semester of 100 level college Chemistry OR Physics; OR
 - b. One year equivalent of Chemistry OR Physics in high school; high school AP courses are acceptable